

Pike Alumni Association Bowling Tourney

When? Saturday, October 8, 2011, noon—3 pm

Where? Woodland Bowl, 3421 E. 96th, 46240 (just east of Keystone on 96th)

Why? To raise money for the Pike Alumni Association scholarship fund. Currently a $1000 scholarship is awarded annually to a Pike senior who has attended Pike schools for at least 11 years and who has at least 1 parent or grandparent who graduated from PHS or New Augusta High School. In May of 2011 we were able to give 2 scholarships, thanks to contributions from Metzler family and from fundraising events like this.

How Much to enter the tourney? $15 per person.

Tourney Setup: 2 games, organized into 4 person teams. Registration forms and checks should be received by September 21, 2011. Sign up as a team to ensure you bowl in the same lane with your classmates / friends / family. Prize awarded for the most strikes bowled in a game, most spares bowled in a game, best costume. Lowest individual combined game score eligible to get tourney entry fee refunded. Each individual game bowled with a score over 200 is eligible for a special prize drawing.
